The carrier and shipper agree that liability for loss, damage, or delay shall be limited to the actual value of the goods at the time and place of shipment unless a higher value is declared in writing and accepted by the carrier with applicable charges paid. The carrier is not liable for loss or damage caused by acts of God, public authorities, inherent vice of the goods, or acts or omissions of the shipper. Claims must be filed in writing within the time period prescribed by law.

This certifies that the materials identified above have been correctly classified, packaged, marked, and labeled, and are in suitable condition for transport in full compliance with applicable regulations.

A. Miller, 05-13-24

The carrier confirms receipt of the listed packages and any necessary placards. The carrier also certifies that emergency response information has been provided. The property detailed above is accepted in good condition unless otherwise stated.
